Torrance Public Library...Celebrating 100 years.

Students and Government Day – May 7, 2013

The City of Torrance announces this year's Students and Government Day; a program now in its seventh year is geared toward 8th graders who attend public and private schools in the City of Torrance.

Students and Government Day is a great opportunity for students to gain an understanding of local government. Students that participate will become a more informed and involved citizen and future voter. It also exposes students to a possible career choice of public service.

To participate, 8th grade students must neatly write or type a 100 - 150 word essay on the topic: "The United States Congress is responsible for creating laws at the Federal level, while Torrance City Council is responsible for creating laws at the City level. Describe one law that you think Torrance City Council should create and how it would improve the City of Torrance and benefit citizens who live here." Essays must be submitted to the respective social studies teacher by February 19, 2013. Forms are available at www.TorranceCA.Gov/Students.htm.

Among those who submit essays, 22 students will be invited to participate in a variety of activities, including job shadowing elected officials or city management staff for the afternoon and opening an actual City Council meeting on live television.

While this program is geared for 8th graders, the City encourages all students to continue learning about local government and how they can help serve our community. For more information on the Students and Government Day, please visit www.TorranceCA.Gov/Students.htm or contact the City Manager's Office at (310) 618-5880.

TORRANCE PUBLIC LIBRARY CELEBRATES A CENTURY OF SERVICE

For 100 years, there has been a public library in Torrance serving the educational, informational, recreational, and cultural needs of this diverse community. Starting humbly out of the front parlor of Mrs. Isabel Henderson's Gramercy Street bungalow, the Torrance Public Library would grow to be the largest library system in the South Bay. Join us as we celebrate a Century of Service.
